

THE APPEAL.

The Points of Abusing Interest.
The Washington Column following is a summary of the policy of the President's party. Our readers have heard, and will hear of more, the foreign policy of the President; and they may be pleased to see the points of that policy thus clearly and authoritatively set forth:

1. A distinct accommodation to Congress is proposed for the direct purchase of the Island of Cuba. The army of facts is in support of this policy, as absolutely irresistible.

The President has said that the government of Spain can entail nothing but evils upon the people of the island, insolvency to us, and that Congress shall provide the means for its removal.

2. The President proposes an armed occupation of the northern States of Mexico by American troops, for the purpose of recon-quering the Mexican border Territories.

3. The President suggests the exercise of a special protectorate over the distracted republics of Central America, in behalf of his territory against the machinations of ambition.

4. A distinct demand is made for authority to employ the land and naval forces of the United States to open and keep the Nicaragua canal.

It asserts the principle that we have the right, by virtue of our position as a maritime, commercial power, on the Pacific coast, to propose and maintain, in behalf of our Pacific and Atlantic interests, to maintain the neutrality of all the isthmian passes.

5. He makes also the necessary demand from the point of view of our numerous and well-grounded claims of our people upon that government.

ANOTHER CONVENTION FROM SPAIN-ISH.—Dr. R. P. RAYEN, when describing by his wife, the widow CORA L. V., seems to have done justice to the Spanish proposal to publish its decisions in a series of books, to be published in the New York Herald. The following letter indicates his wife's mind of STATION HOLLOW, COOZ, N. H., December 13, 1858.

The Editor of the Times:—The Nine years of the most intimate acquaintance with the facts, philosophy and theology of Spanish law, have thoroughly convinced me of the correctness of the Spanish proposal and I have hitherto, while delated by its fallacies, been its unfeeling advocate. I now intend to publish my views, and to expose the fallacies, the defective theories, and prejudices of many other pretended specialists. It is imperative that I am obliged to maintain, but as I have done so far, it is difficult to do so again. I have no time to do so, and I have no money, and I have no friends, and I have no publisher. In the prosecution of my doctrine, do you think there are difficulties? Please write by mail, and let me know what you will do.

MY articles will bear date at New York.

F. HATCH, M. D.

A MODEL MERCHANT.—A letter from Don L. S. HARRIS, of Boston, gives the round of our exchanges under the above heading.

I died yesterday morning,—who may be called a model merchant, but because he has done well in his business, and because he is not dead.

He makes sales services to him, and sacrifices to him; he is one of the blue of blue, and is a model merchant.
